

Seattle Humane Responds to Deadline Extension

The Seattle Humane Society supports the decision of the King County Council to give Executive Constantine until June 30 to finish a comprehensive regional animal services plan.

As the largest private nonprofit shelter in King County, The Seattle Humane Society stands ready to help and do what's best for the animals.

We look forward to working with Executive Constantine and the King County Council to create a humane solution for the orphaned animals in our community who need help.
