

WALK FOR THE ANIMALS THIS WEEKEND!

Last chance to register for Seattle Humane's Sept. 26 fundraiser

IMMEDIATE RELEASE: SEPTEMBER 23, 2010

More than 675 animal lovers and their dogs have their leashes ready to go for Seattle Humane Society's 8th annual Walk for the Animals on Sunday. The walkers have so far raised $95,000 toward our $150,000 goal!

The Walk - sponsored by KOMO Newsradio, KOMO 4 News, 570 KVI and presented by Door-to-Door Storage - kicks off at University Village and winds through the Union Bay Natural Area Trails. All the funds raised at the Walk support the wonderful dogs, cats and critters in our care.

It's not too late to join in on the fun!

Learn more and register at seattlehumane.org/walk.*

(Last chance to register online is Saturday, September 25 at noon.)*

Participants will enjoy a pet-friendly day of breakfast treats, awesome event booths, fabulous give-aways, and a 2.25 mile scenic walk. After the Walk, stay for University Village's FidoFEST, a celebration of all things dog! The entire day benefits the Seattle Humane Society.

Can't join us for the Walk this year? You can still help us meet our fundraising goal and make a life-saving difference for the animals at Seattle Humane. Donate today!
