We Save Lives and Bring People & Pets Together

Every year the Seattle Humane Society helps thousands of loving dogs, cats, and critters in need in our community. We rescue animals from other shelters where they've run out of time, we embrace pets whose families can no longer care for them, and we save pets who are fending for themselves on the streets. We give them food, shelter, medical attention, and the tender care they need to become valued members of a loving family of their own.

Missy and her siblings did not have the easiest start in life. They were found scared and alone on the streets at just four weeks of age. Lucky for them, they were brought to the Seattle Humane Society. We placed them in a volunteer foster home for one month, and with the help of constant care and compassion, they grew big and strong. At two months of age, Missy was adopted by a doting adopter who writes, "Missy is growing very fast and is so playful – she is loads of energy and quite the little firecracker. Suffice to say, I'm a very proud mom of the cutest girl in the world!"

Missy received the love and care she needed in foster care.

Adoptions are at the Heart of Our Mission

Adopters often write to the Seattle Humane Society just to let us know how happy they are that we helped them meet their match.

Mimi is cozy in her new home.

Hi Seattle Humane Society,

We adopted Wren from the Tuxes & Tails event and wanted to say thank you. She's such a blessing to our family. Our children love her and she fits in perfectly. We named her Mia Meow – or Mimi. She and our Dachshund, Dewey, love each other. She likes to clean his ears. She curls up with both dogs and they all play together. I just wanted to follow up so you could see that you found another loving home for a pet. Keep up the good work. I know it's a labor of love and you do a great job!

~ Lanice G.

Greetings,

Gretta and I are an ITEM! She goes everywhere with me and could not be any sweeter. Such a loving dog. I am actually getting slowly used to the idea of walking a dog, instead of a dog walking me. Someone had trained her well. I've taught her a bad habit of getting up in bed with me and now she doesn't want to get out of bed and barks for me to come re-join her once I come down to make coffee... hilarious!

Thanks for all your help!

~ Ken M.

Gretta loves to go for car rides!

Every Donation Makes a Life-Saving Difference

At the Seattle Humane Society, we keep administrative and fundraising costs to a minimum so that 80 cents of every dollar is spent on programs and animals in our care. We're proud to report that for the third year in a row, we received a 4-star rating – the highest possible rating for financial management – from Charity Navigator, the nation's leading charity evaluation group.

Adoptions

We're experts at matchmaking! Seattle Humane believes that every healthy and adoptable pet deserves a home of their own and that there is a perfect pet out there for every person. Last year we placed 5,431 dogs, cats and critters. Our bright and bustling Adoption Center is fun for the whole family and our friendly staff and volunteers are always there to help you choose the pet companion who is best for you.

Spay/Neuter Surgery

Every pet adopted from Seattle Humane has been spayed or neutered. We also offer low-fee spay and neuter surgeries for pets belonging to low-income pet owners. More than 2,000 public pets were spayed/neutered by our veterinarians last year. Our "Mom's Last Litter" program provides free spay/neuter surgeries for pet parents and their litters. Thanks to a grant from PetSmart Charities®, we also offer free spay/neuter surgeries for Pit Bulls.

MaxMobile

The MaxMobile is our 38-foot bright yellow bus for the animals! The MaxMobile travels throughout the region to local stores, markets, and events with pets ready for on-the-spot adoptions. Last year, more than 310 pets met their match on Max. The MaxMobile also visits local schools where our staff teaches students about humane education. In times of trouble, flood or fire, Max comes to the rescue to transport and house animals in an emergency until they can be returned to their families. The lead gift for the MaxMobile came from Kaycee and Michael Krysty.

Volunteers

Volunteers are at the heart of Seattle Humane. They walk our dogs and brush our cats, deliver pet food to the elderly and disabled, and help with office work. We have nearly 1,400 volunteers. Last year, our volunteers dedicated more than 182,000 hours of their time — the equivalent of 88 full time staff members!

Training

Seattle Humane offers effective training courses and workshops for you and your pet in our auditorium. Most of our dog adoptions include a free six-week basic manners training course, and our courses are also open to the public. From puppy training to advanced agility, we have a class for everyone. Our certified, professional trainers use positive reinforcement methods to reward good behavior instead of punishing bad behavior.

Visiting Pet Friends

Our Visiting Pet Friends program brings the healing power of animal companionship to those who can no longer have pets of their own. We have more than 35 Visiting Pet Friends volunteers who take their certified pets to more than 40 facilities including nursing homes, centers for people with disabilities, children's homes and other locations in King County.

Pet Food Bank

Our Pet Food Bank feeds more than 1,500 pets monthly who belong to low-income, disabled and senior clients. Thanks to donations from our community, our volunteers make monthly deliveries of nearly six tons of pet food to local senior centers, low-income housing complexes, food banks and individual homes. We welcome pet food drives all year round!

Pet Project

Pet Project helps low-income people disabled by AIDS keep their pets by providing their companion animals with food, supplies and medical care. By matching volunteers one-on-one with clients, 180 individuals don't have to choose between pet care and self care. Our free, bi-monthly Pet Project Clinic provides clients' pets with health checks, vaccinations, basic dental checks, and minor medical care.

Pet Loss Support

Losing your animal friend can be one of life's most difficult experiences. We offer weekly Pet Loss Support sessions with trained volunteer facilitators to provide the public a safe place to work through the grieving process with others. Last year, 75 participants found comfort at a Pet Loss Support meeting. This free, drop-in service is held at the shelter every Saturday at 10 a.m.

For Teens and Kids

Our MaxMobile brings humane education to the community every week, visiting local schools, community centers and festivals. We also provide an Animal Adventures Day Camp for kids so they can learn all about animals and enjoy pet-related activities. For older kids, we have the Humane Teen Club, a year-long program that prepares teens for volunteerism at Seattle Humane.

Foster Care

By opening their hearts and homes to pets in need, foster care volunteers help us literally expand the walls of our shelter and save more animals' lives. Last year, more than 4,800 pets benefited from foster care. Foster parents help our most fragile shelter guests by giving older pets a break from the shelter, allowing pets time to recover from surgery, providing dogs rescued from puppy mills with extra care, and so much more!

Lexus Fund

The Lexus Fund allows us to provide shelter dogs with the extra medical care they need to make them healthy and adoptable. Thanks to the Lexus Fund, we were able to give 109 dogs the extra care they needed last year including dogs with injuries, infections, dental issues, and other treatable conditions. Jim and Bet Schuler pledged $130,000 to start the fund, named in memory of their dog Lexus.

Keith D. Grinstein Memorial Fund

The Keith D. Grinstein Memorial Fund allows us to provide medical care to shelter cats to make them adoptable. Thanks to the Grinstein Fund, we were able to give 110 cats the extra care they needed last year, including cats with injuries, infections, dental issues, and other treatable conditions. The Grinstein Fund was started by a group of friends in honor of Keith D. Grinstein, an animal lover who died unexpectedly in 2008.

Letter from an Adopter

Dear Seattle Humane,

We just wanted to write to let you know how much we love Lilly, who we adopted one month ago, after she had been at Seattle Humane for almost six months.

She is a beautiful, gracious kitty, who makes quiet little rumbling sounds when she is waiting for treats. She has made friends with our other kitties, and with anyone who comes to visit. She picked out her favorite chairs and couches for naps right away!

Thank you for taking such good care of Lilly while she was with you. The adoption supervisors who helped me with the adoption process were wonderful and gave Lilly a big hug goodbye. I could tell that they loved her, too!

Rainey Becomes a Princess

Rainey, a 5-year-old Siberian Husky/Chow Chow mix, was surrendered to Seattle Humane because her owners could not give her the care she deserved. Rainey was in deplorable shape. She had severe skin allergies, mange, ear and skin infections, and masses on her body. We placed Rainey in foster care where she received medical treatment.

BEFORE: Rainey was suffering from a terrible skin condition.

Over several months, Rainey slowly recovered. Her thick fur grew back in and revealed a beautiful dog inside and out! Her foster family renamed her “Princess” Rainey in honor of her incredible transformation. When she had fully recovered and was ready to be adopted, her foster family decided that she had already found a home with them. Today Princess Rainey reigns supreme as a beloved family member and a testament to what a little time and tenderness can mean to an animal in need.

AFTER: Now she's as pretty as a princess!

Phoebe's Story

Phoebe, a 7-year-old Jack Russell Terrier mix, was surrendered to Seattle Humane when her owners fell ill and could no longer care for her. During an examination by our vet staff, we discovered that Phoebe is deaf. While most shelters would consider an older dog with a disability unadoptable, we knew that Phoebe just needed a chance to meet her special someone.

We gave Phoebe the love and attention she needed to thrive at the shelter, and some extra one-on-one time in our volunteer Foster Care Program, until one day a gentleman named Carl came in to meet her.

Smitten, Carl continued to visit Phoebe, while studying how to care for and train a deaf dog. He finally decided he was up for the challenge and adopted her a few weeks later! Carl writes, "Phoebe is the love of my life. Everyone who meets her finds her totally charming... she just wants to cuddle and be right next to you. Thank you for introducing her to me and allowing her to become part of my life."

We gave Phoebe a chance to meet her special someone.

Letter from an Adopter

Hello!

A couple of weeks ago I adopted Bisky & Boomy, two 16-year-old sisters (since renamed Celie & Nettie – from “The Color Purple”). I just wanted to drop you a line and let you know that they’re doing really great. They adjusted very fast... no hiding time at all! They can’t seem to get enough attention, or food, and enjoy spending a lot of time just lounging around on comfy surfaces.

Thanks for taking such great care of them all those months so that they could bless my life and home!

~Stacy Leggitt
