

CATS ARE SO COOL

And the Seattle Humane Society is Willing to Prove It

Cats are So Cool and the Seattle Humane Society is willing to prove it! In March, cat adoption fees will be held at the low price of $25 for wonderful cats 1 year and older. Whether cat lovers are looking for a demure exotic, playful tabby or affectionate calico, adopt any cat 1 year and older for just $25. Each cat at the Seattle Humane Society is spayed or neutered, vaccinated and micro-chipped. And they come with health insurance for a month.

Just ask anyone at the Seattle Humane Society...and they'll explain why CATS ARE COOL!

- Because they don't bark when the doorbell rings.
- They never need a bath, they clean themselves...
- They're perfectly happy playing with a paper bag.
- And they're just so soft and cuddly

No matter what shape, color or size, the purrrfect cat companion is waiting at the Seattle Humane Society. Visit hundreds of cool cats at the Seattle Humane Society, open seven days a week from noon to 6 p.m. in Bellevue at the junction of I-405 and I-90. See online profiles at www.seattlehumane.org/adopt.

The Seattle Humane Society was founded in 1897 to bring people and pets together. The Seattle Humane Society does this today through its adoptions, low-fee spay/neuter surgery program, pet workshops and training, pet food bank, humane teen club, visiting pets program and more. The Seattle Humane Society is located in Bellevue, at 13212 SE Eastgate Way. For directions and more information, visit www.seattlehumane.org or call (425) 641-0080.
