

ACATEMY AWARDS

Free Adoptions for Adult Black and White Cats

The Seattle Humane Society is rolling out the red carpet for its elegant “tuxedo” cats in celebration of the 2009 Academy Awards. Feb. 21-22, adoption fees will be free for black, and black & white tuxedo cats 1-year and older. This is our gift to the community. These statuesque kitties have been spayed/neutered, microchipped, vaccinated and health-checked. They will go home with a full month of health insurance and a free vet exam.

“Black is chic for all seasons” – Cat Spade

“What says red carpet more than a little black dress or a crisp black and white tuxedo,” said Brenda Barnette, chief executive officer. “How about a sleek black cat or handsome tuxedo cat! Our cats have winning personalities of Oscar-worthy proportions and we want everyone to have a chance to meet these fabulous felines.”

“Black is always dazzling” – Donatella Purrsace

The winning felines are waiting behind the velvet rope at the Seattle Humane Society, located in Bellevue at 13212 SE Eastgate Way. The adoption center is open seven days a week from noon until 6:00 p.m.

“Black is classic” – Catvin Klein

It is recommended that adopters allow an hour or more to select a cat and complete the adoption. Not only will adopters get an Award Winning Feline, but also a Friend for Life!

The Seattle Humane Society was founded in 1897 to bring people and pets together. The Seattle Humane Society does this today through its adoptions, low-fee spay/neuter surgery program, pet workshops and training, pet food bank, humane teen club, visiting pets program and more. The Seattle Humane Society is located in Bellevue, at 13212 SE Eastgate Way. For directions and more information, visit www.seattlehumane.org or call (425) 641-0080.

###