

FOSTER Family + shelter pet = SUMMER LOVIN'

Join Seattle Humane Society's life-saving Foster Care Program today!

Summertime is the perfect time to foster a pet companion! Make this summer one to remember by joining Seattle Humane Society's team of heroic foster parents.

Fostering is a great family experience! You can provide temporary foster care for a litter of kittens, a cat, a litter of puppies or a dog and let your entire family help while school's out this summer. After all, children who learn to be gentle with animals are more likely to become caring and responsible adults.

If you have a big heart and temporary use of a spare room, we'll provide the rest! Watch a video about Seattle Humane Society's Foster Care Program then call (425) 641-0080 or email volunteers@seattlehumane.org today to become a life-saving foster parent!

One cat foster volunteer had this to say about her experiences, "When I compared Jake and Max this morning, all bright-eyed and bushy-tailed and looking for attention, to the frightened cats that I brought home two weeks ago, I marveled. I always do. The cats' resiliency and ability to heal and become happy is heartwarming and rewarding."

Last year, 4,337 animals received the extra care they needed to become adoptable in foster homes including older cats or dogs in need of a break from shelter life, dog or cats recovering from a surgical procedure who needed time to heal, and litters of puppies and kittens in need of bottle feedings.

Become a volunteer foster parent today and join the team that makes a life-saving difference for the animals!
