DOG FIRST AID WORKSHOP

Learn How To Make a Life-Saving Difference For Man's Best Friend

BELLEVUE, WA – Registration is now open for the Seattle Humane Society's Dog First Aid workshop, scheduled for Tuesday April 22 from 6:00 to 8:30 p.m. Dog lovers will learn important tips and tricks that may help save a pet's life one day.

Register today by calling (425) 641-0080 or email the registration form (available at www.seattlehumane.org) to humane@seattlehumane.org. The workshop costs $55 to attend and will be held at the Seattle Humane Society, located at the junction of I-405 and I-90.

Attendees will be taught how to check vital signs, when and how to move an injured dog, how to give immediate care for wounds, CPR techniques, and more. New skills will be practiced on special pet mannequins and a live "canine assistant." Attendees will receive a 115-page Pet First Aid Reference Guide and a DVD that covers first aid treatment for more than 70 canine health conditions.

"The Dog First Aid workshop will give dog lovers the confidence they need to be there for their pet during an emergency," said Brenda Barnette, Chief Executive Officer of the Seattle Humane Society. "Sometimes there are only a few minutes to act."

The Seattle Humane Society was founded in 1897 to bring people and pets together. The Seattle Humane Society does this today through its low-fee spay/neuter surgery program, pet workshops and training, pet food bank, humane teen club, visiting pets program and more. The Seattle Humane Society is located in Bellevue, at 13212 SE Eastgate Way. For directions and more information, visit www.seattlehumane.org or call (425) 641-0080.
