

Bringing people and pets together

Meet Angel!

Angel is a 10-year-old sweetie looking for someone who really “gets” her. This gorgeous girl was first surrendered to Seattle Humane when her owner became ill and could no longer care for her. Having lost all she had ever known, Angel was understandably unsure of her new surroundings and shied away from affection. Angel’s shyness is sometimes misread by potential adopters — but her foster family has told us that behind a worried exterior, there’s a loving lap cat just waiting to come out! Angel flourishes in a home environment and wants nothing more than to be part of a loving and patient family.
