Meet Joey!

Joey is a beautiful bear of a dog available for adoption today from the Seattle Humane Society. This 7-year-old Rottweiler mix with rich black and rust-colored fur has the sweetest disposition and the cutest little nub tail. Joey loves showing off all the tricks he knows including sit, down, high-five, touch, drop it, leave it, and come. If you've got a bag full of treats, he's eager to learn even more!

Joey is a "people dog" and would be happiest as the only pet. He's currently getting a break from the shelter in a loving foster home. To find out more about Joey, call (425) 649-7563 or email adoptions@seattlehumane.org.
