Meet Jamie Jonquil

Jamie Jonquil, a 1-year-old Pit Bull Terrier/Mastiff mix, is a true gentle giant and the best of both breeds. Like a Pit Bull, Jamie enjoys socializing, playing and exercising outside. However, like a Mastiff, this handsome lug is happiest when he's just lounging by your side. Ask anyone at the Seattle Humane Society to describe Jamie and they'll say, "oversized lap dog." Jamie loves to sit on your feet, lay across your lap, and cuddle up BIG time. He's just one big moosh looking for someone to love him back!

Jamie Jonquil is currently in foster care and not at the shelter - but it's easy to set up a time to meet him. Call the Seattle Humane Society at (425)274-1503 to learn more about how you can welcome this big lover into your life today.
