

Tips for a Happy & Healthy Easter

Hop on over to the Seattle Humane Society if You're looking for a New Best Friend!

---

Every Easter, adorable baby rabbits, chicks and ducklings are given as gifts. Sadly too many are quickly discarded or die. This Easter, you have a chance to make an important contribution to your child's education by teaching your children that owning a pet is a big responsibility.

If your family is ready to add a new family member this Easter, come down to the Seattle Humane Society at 13212 SE Eastgate Way in Bellevue where our experienced adoption counselors will help you find the pet that's just right for you. The Seattle Humane Society has wonderful bunnies, dogs, cats, and other critters who can't wait to be part of your family!

Our trained staff will help you find the right companion for your lifestyle and will give you all the information you need to get off on the right paw.

Visit us online at seattlehumane.org to see our adoptable pets and learn how to be a responsible pet owner.

If you already have a furry family member, make sure to keep yummy Easter baskets out of your best friend's way and have a Happy & Healthy Easter!

Seattle Humane Society has been awarded the coveted 4-star rating by Charity Navigator, America's largest independent charity evaluator. Founded in 1897 to bring people and pets together, Seattle Humane Society provides incredible companion animals for adoption 7 days a week, pet workshops and training, a pet food bank, a low-fee spay/neuter surgery program, humane teen club, a visiting pets program and more. Seattle Humane Society is located in Bellevue, at 13212 SE Eastgate Way. For directions and more information, visit www.seattlehumane.org or call (425) 641-0080.