

SIZZLIN' SUMMER PET FOOD DRIVE!

Look for Seattle Humane Society barrels at your King County Safeway stores

Calling all animal lovers! The Seattle Humane Society and Safeway have teamed up for a Summer Pet Food Drive to help fill the shelves of our Pet Food Bank. Look for collection barrels in your local King County Safeway store throughout July. Pick up a few extra cans of pet food or a bag of dry pet food – and drop them in! Cat food is our greatest need.

Seattle Humane Society's Pet Food Bank provides pet food every month to more than 1,200 pets belonging to low-income seniors and people disabled by AIDS. Thanks to the Pet Food Bank, more than 930 pet owners each month don't have to choose between self care and pet care.

Ways you can help!

1. Donate canned or dry pet food at your local Safeway store throughout July. Dry cat food is our greatest need.
2. Make it a team effort by holding a pet food drive in your community at your church, synagogue, school or business.
3. Spread the word: text, blog, wall post & tweet today!

Our volunteers pack, load and deliver this canned and dry pet food to local senior centers, low-income housing complexes, food banks and individual homes. Help us help pets, and people too, by giving to the Seattle Humane Society Pet Food Bank. Our mission is bringing people and pets together, and keeping them together.
