

116 CATS ADOPTED AT CATAPALOOZA

Seattle Humane's celebration of cats a huge success!

An incredible 116 cats and kittens were adopted this weekend at Seattle Humane Society's Catapalooza, our 5th annual celebration of cats! The event also found homes for 7 dogs and 3 critters.

Cat-loving families from around the region flocked to our feline festival to visit with kitties, learn about feline behavior, create homemade cat toys and more! Kitties ranging from 2 months to 14 years were placed into loving homes, thanks to the efforts of our staff, volunteers, and partner organizations.

Adopters worked with personal adoption advisors to find the perfect cat for their lifestyle and six animal welfare organizations joined in on the fun. Seattle Humane placed 93 pets and MEOW, Purrfect Pals, Everett Animal Shelter, South County Cats, KCACC, and Seattle Himalayan/Purebred Rescue placed 33 felines total.

We thank the community for opening their hearts and homes to animals in need this weekend. If you couldn't make it to the event, stop by Seattle Humane in Bellevue to meet the hundreds of cats, dogs, and other critters still waiting for families of their own. We're open seven days a week from noon to 6 p.m. For a sneak pet preview, visit us online at seattlehumane.org.

*Seattle Humane Society has been awarded the coveted 4-star rating by Charity Navigator, America's largest independent charity evaluator.
