Community Outreach Programs: Our organization is dedicated to teaching children the importance and value of kindness and respect for all living creatures, educating guardians about their pets' needs and behaviors, and increasing awareness within our community about animal welfare issues.

Adventure Cap for Kids: Seattle Humane offers summer sessions for school-age children to have fun while learning about animals.

Curriculum Materials: we offer age-specific materials and resources for and lesson plans on kindness, responsible pet care, pet safety, choosing a pet and pet overpopulation.

Campus Tours: We offer campus tours for children and adults that include an age-appropriate discussion of our organization's programs and services, responsible pet care, pet overpopulation and kindness towards animals.

People and Pet Workshops: Workshops focus on strengthening companionship between people and their pets by offering fun and educational topics to pet owners. Each year, we bring back old favorites as well as offer new topics to pet enthusiasts throughout our community.

Humane Teen Club: In September 2002, we launched The Humane Teen Club (HTC) to provide volunteer opportunities for 13- to 15- years old and teach them to the benefits of animal companionship. HTC focuses on the importance of animal companionship and welfare through monthly meetings featuring educational presentations and service projects. Teens that complete the program requirements and graduate from the club, may apply to volunteer in selected volunteer programs at Seattle Humane before turning 16-years old.

Pet Food Bank: Many years ago, we noticed senior citizens giving up custody of their pets at our Adoption Center for lack of money to care for them. Because studies show that the companionship of a pet can greatly improve the quality of life for people living with disabilities, illness, or little social contact, Seattle Humane 632212 08-25-16 Schedule O (Form 990 or 990-EZ) (2016)
