

Group Volunteering Opportunities

Seattle Humane is more than a shelter!

Seattle Humane is the region's pet resource center. In the last year we have provided:

- 5,600+ adoptions
- 12K+ veterinary exams
- 5K+ vaccinations
- 4K+ community wellness exams
- 5K+ spay/neuter surgeries
- 1M meals/year through our Pet Food Bank
- 4K participants in animal welfare education
- 88K pets and their people supported through our many programs

Donations support every aspect of our work both at the shelter and out in the community.

Bring Your Group to the Shelter!

Group Sizes

- We can accommodate groups of up to 15 people

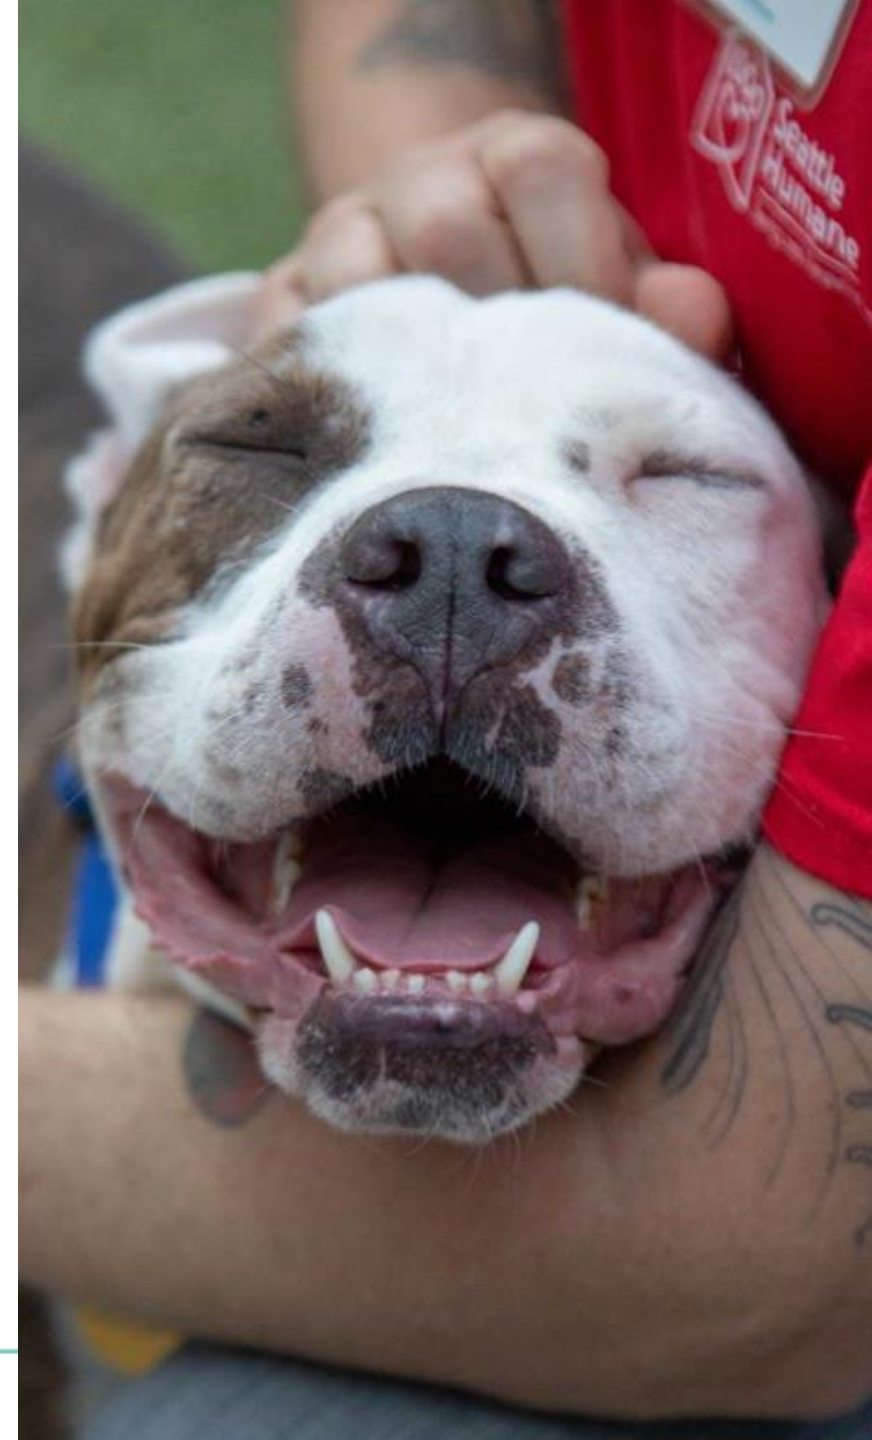

What to Expect

- A brief presentation about Seattle Humane and our lifesaving work
- Active service session—your group will help with critical needs for everyday care and tasks directly benefiting our animals. Activities may include laundry, cleaning dishes, cleaning yard spaces and maintaining trails
- 30-minute animal encounter

Have an Hour to Volunteer?

- Work on a craft that directly benefits the animals in our care. Crafts include:
 - cat puzzle feeders
 - cat scratchers
 - dog toy cushions
 - dog snuffle mats
- Help write thank you notes to our donors
- Host a virtual fundraiser on social media
- Host a fundraiser walk/run or bike

Promote Seattle Humane at Your Workplace

- Host a fundraiser at your office
- Collect in-kind donations for the pets in our care and our Pet Food Bank! Here are our Chewy and Amazon wish lists for inspiration!
- Include Seattle Humane's lifesaving work in corporate publications.
- Invite us to speak at your office

Corporate Matching Gifts

Do you work for a company that will match your gift or volunteer hours?

Submitting a match request is an easy way to double the impact of your donation or time. Not sure if your company matches? You can visit our website and use the matching gift tool to search for your employer.

If you work for a company that participates in workplace campaigns, all you need to do is indicate you would like your payroll deductions to benefit Seattle Humane.
