- Approximately 38K monthly email recipients
- 13 million+ monthly reach on social media

Seattle Humane is More Than a Shelter!

Seattle Humane is the region's pet resource center. In the last year we have provided:

5,200+ adoptions

10K veterinary exams for community & shelter pets

9K vaccinations

10K spay/neuter surgeries

1M meals/year through our Pet Food Bank

4K participants in education programs

82K pets and their people supported through our many programs

Donations support every aspect of our work both at the shelter and out in the community

The Shelter & Medical Center

Established in 1897

- Moved to Bellevue in 1972
- State-of-the-art building opened in December 2017
- Medical clinic open seven days a week serving shelter and community pets

Built to reduce fear, anxiety & stress in pets

- Cats and dogs are separated by floor
- Sensory rooms (calming music and scents)

Isolation units

- Increases effectiveness of treatment of infectious diseases like ringworm and parvovirus

Walking trails and play/training yards

- Multiple outdoor dog training and play runs with sanitary dog-friendly turf

Supporting Pet Owners

Community Clinic

- Provides affordable and accessible wellness care, vaccinations and microchips to income-qualified members of our community

SPOT Temporary Care

- Program offering stability for pets when their owners need time to address medical issues, find housing, leave a domestic violence situation or handle other life emergencies

Oogie's Ohana Pet Food Bank

- Providing donated food and supplies to low-income families and food banks in our region

Financial Assistance

- Keeping pets and families together by:
 - Helping with unexpected or high costs of care
 - Supporting those facing barriers to accessing housing, like pet deposit fees

Tuxes & Tails Gala

Each year animal lovers come together for an evening of fun and generosity in support of Seattle Humane's lifesaving work.

Corporate sponsors benefit from valuable exposure to a highly engaged audience, strengthening their brand presence while demonstrating community leadership.
